(XLIXth YEAR.) THE (No. 2455.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1794.

An ACT to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety four.

BE IT ENACTED, by the general assembly of Maryland, That Randolph Brandt Latimer be agent of this state, to execute the trust and power reposed in him by virtue of this act, from the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, until the first day of January, one thousand seven hundred and ninety five.

And be it enacted, That the said agent superintend the collection of all arrearages and balances due from the several collectors of the respective counties within this state, appointed since the first day of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the said agent is hereby authorised and required to call upon the treasurers of the respective shores for an accurate statement of all arrearages and balances due from such collectors, and such account shall be furnished by the said treasurers accordingly.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all balances due to the state on the auditor's books; and the said agent shall have power to require payment of, and if necessary to sue for and recover the same; and the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make composition with any such debtors, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding three years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, always requiring annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all monies due to the state for duties, fines, penalties, forfeitures and amerciaments, and forfeited recognizances, and for ordinary, retailers and marriage licences, and to require payment, and (if necessary) sue for and recover the same; and the said agent may allow for insolvencies, and credit any money that the party is not chargeable with by law; and for his information of the law he may take the advice of the attorney general.

And be it enacted, That wherever there shall be occasion to expose to sale the property of any collector, or his securities, by virtue of any execution already issued, or to be directed for this purpose, the agent shall cause public notice to be given of such sale, and shall attend the same, and if it shall appear that there is danger of losing any part of the debt due to the state, and not otherwise, shall purchase any property so exposed to sale for the use of the state, in payment, or part payment, as the case may be, of the arrearages due by the collectors whose property may be so purchased; and any property so purchased for the use of the state, the said agent may again expose to public auction on the most advantageous terms for the use of the state, and if the same be sold on credit, the said agent shall take bond, with good and sufficient security, to be approved of by the treasurer of the western shore, from the purchasers of such property; and all bonds by him so taken shall be deposited, with an accurate list thereof subscribed by him, into the treasury of the western shore, and shall be a lien upon the real property of such purchasers and their securities from the respective dates, or so much thereof as is mentioned in the schedule thereto annexed.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall have power to dispose of all confiscated British property that remains unsold, except the property of Edmund Jennings, of the city of London, and of Thomas Digges, formerly of Maryland, but now residing in Europe, and take bonds to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding three years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety three, always requiring annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal.

And, whereas there are still some balances due to this state upon sales of confiscated property unbonded for, and it appears to this general assembly that in some cases the purchasers are unable to make payment, and the property is becoming daily of less value, Be it enacted, That the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, be authorised to release any of the said purchasers who are unable to pay from their purchases, and take back the property for the use of the state; and the said agent, with the approbation of the governor and council, may make composition with the said purchasers for the use of the said property, and take bonds for the same to the state, with sufficient security, and give time for payment, not exceeding three years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, always requiring an annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal; and any property taken back the said agent shall dispose of in the same manner as he is before authorised to dispose of confiscated British property unsold, and to take bonds in the same manner for the purchase money, and on the same credit and terms; provided, that in no case shall the state refund any part of the principal or interest paid by such purchasers.

And be it enacted, That the governor and council be authorised, if they shall think it necessary, to require new bond and security from any debtor who has not installed, and to limit a time within which such new bond and security shall be given, and if the same be not given within the time so limitted, they shall direct the said agent to cause process to issue on the bonds of such debtors, and their securities, or to proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended, as the case may require, for the whole principal and interest due from such debtors; and in all such cases it shall be lawful for the said agent, and he is hereby authorised, under the direction of the governor and council, if they shall think it to the advantage of the state, to take back the said property and dispose of the same on a credit of three years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, always requiring annual payment of interest, and equal annual payments of the principal; and in all such cases where judgments may have been obtained, and where execution may have issued or shall issue, it shall and may be lawful for the said agent, and he is hereby required to dispose of all the property of the debtors thus circumstanced, on a like credit of three years from the first day of December, seventeen hundred and ninety-three, always requiring annual payment of the interest, and equal annual payments of the principal. And the said agent shall lay before the legislature at their next meeting, a list of all persons from whom property shall be taken back by virtue of this act, together with the amount of the former sales, and also of the sales made in virtue of this act.

And be it enacted, That if any bond debtor to the state, for confiscated property purchased, or otherwise, shall neglect to make payment, agreeably to the condition of his bond, and sundry resolves of the general assembly, the said agent shall cause process to issue for the whole principal and interest then due, or shall proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended as aforesaid, as occasion may require.

And be it enacted, That the said agent be authorised to superintend the collection of all balances due on bonds taken for taxes due before the first of January, seventeen hundred and eighty-three; and the said agent shall also superintend the collection of all balances due on bonds installed, or otherwise, for the emissions of paper money of seventeen hundred and sixty-nine and seventeen hundred and seventy-three.

And be it enacted, That no process shall issue against any of the public debtors, unless by the direction of the said agent.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall have power to fix such days for the sale of property, taken by fieri facias at the suit of the state, as he may think proper, always taking care to give at least twenty days notice thereof; and the said agent shall also have power to suspend the sales, from time to time, as he may think most to the advantage of the state.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall pay into the treasury, in specie, the amount of all specie by him received in the discharge of the duties of this act.

And be it enacted, That in all cases where bonds shall be taken in virtue of this act, the bonds shall be a lien on all the real property of the obligors from the date thereof, or on so much of the said real property as the governor and the council shall think sufficient, to be particularly mentioned in a schedule to be annexed to the said bond, in which case it shall be a lien on the property contained in such schedule, and no more, such bond and schedule to be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore.

And be it enacted, That all bonds taken in virtue of this act shall express the county in which the obligors respectively reside, and the treasurer of the western shore shall, within one month after he receives them, respectively cause them, with the schedules annexed to them, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the western shore at the expence of the obligors; and a copy of the said record, certified under the hand and official seal of the said clerk, shall be as good evidence in any court of law or equity in this state as the original bond would be if it was produced; and if any of the obligors in any such bonds reside on the eastern shore, the said treasurer shall, within six months from the time he receives the same respectively, transmit to the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, in the same manner that papers on public service are transmitted, a copy of such bonds and schedules, certified as aforesaid by the clerk of the general court of the western shore, to be recorded in the office of the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, at the expence of the obligors, and in such case a copy of the said record, certified as aforesaid by the the said clerk of the general court of the eastern shore, shall be good evidence as aforesaid.

And be it enacted, That the said agent shall render a fair and full account of his several proceedings under the authority of this act, to the general assembly at their next session, and shall be allowed for his services the following commissions, to wit: For all payments made to either of the treasurers on bonds for confiscated property, one per cent. for all bonds with security, taken by the said agent on resales of confiscated property in virtue of this act, two and a half per cent. for all monies collected on open account, not including fines, forfeitures and amerciaments, ordinary, retailers, marriage, hawkers and pedlars licences, which have become due since the first day of January, seventeen hundred and ninety-one, six per cent. and for all other monies or bonds, paid in or taken in virtue of this act, one and a half per cent.

And be it enacted, That the said agent, before he enters upon the execution of the duties of this act, shall give bond to the state, before the governor and the council, in the penalty of twenty thousand pounds current money, with such security as the governor and council shall approve, for the faithful performance of the said duties, which bond shall be lodged with the treasurer of the western shore, and shall also take an oath before the chancellor, that he will well and faithfully discharge the duties of agent, under the act, entitled, "An act to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four," to the best of his skill and judgment, the certificate of which oath shall be annexed to, or endorsed on, the said bond.

And be it enacted, That if the said agent shall not accept his appointment, or if after acceptance he shall not give bond and take the oath aforesaid before the first day of February next, or shall die, the governor and the council are hereby authorised and requested to appoint a fit and proper person in his place, who shall have and execute all the authorities and powers vested in the said Randolph Brandt Latimer by this act, such person first giving security and taking the oath aforesaid.

In COUNCIL, January 6, 1794.

ORDERED, That the act to appoint an agent for the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, be inserted in Mr. Green's, Mr. Angel's and Mr. Cowan's papers, six weeks.

ORDERED, That all debtors to this state for the purchase of confiscated British property, and others who might have installed their debts under the act of assembly passed November session, 1790, entitled, An act respecting the creditors and debtors of this state, and who neglected to comply with the terms of the said act, be and they are hereby required to instal all such debts on or before the first day of May next.

ORDERED, That the agent be and he is hereby required, immediately after the said first day of May next, to cause process to issue on the bonds of such debtors as shall neglect to instal within the time above limitted, and their securities, or to proceed on any execution already issued and served and suspended, or otherwise, as the case may require, for the recovery of the whole principal and interest due from such debtors.

By order,

JOHN KILTY, clk.

NOTICE.

THE debtors to the state of Maryland who have not availed themselves of the benefit of the different instalment laws, will be pleased to pay particular attention to the above notice given by the executive; by instalting their debts they not only have a credit of three years from the first day of December last, paying one third annually, but also a considerable advantage in the purchase of paper, which will answer their purpose for payment equal with specie.

Those debtors who have instalted their debts, and whose instalments became due on the first of September and December last, are respectfully informed that process will issue against every delinquent immediately after the 10th day of February next. It was hoped that the notice given by the agent on the 8th of January, 1793, would have been a sufficient caution to the several county clerks to induce them to make their payments for licences on the first of November annually, and their returns of fines, forfeitures, &c. &c. put into the hands of the several sheriffs for collection; there is no excuse for delay of payment by the clerks, because the money is received by them in court, and unless complete returns are made, and full payments had, by the 10th day of February next, I shall be under the disagreeable necessity of not only commencing suits, or issuing execution, as the case may require, but of proceeding against them, as the law prescribes, for neglect of duty. The several sheriffs, who are in arrears, are also informed that proceedings will be had against them immediately after the said 10th day of February next, for such balances as remain then unpaid.

RANDOLPH B. LATIMER, Agent for the State of Maryland.

Annapolis, January 6, 1794.

LEGHORN, October 10.

THE grand duke of Tuscany has at length renounced his neutrality, and declared war against France. His manifesto is, however, not yet published.

The French consul who resides here is ordered to withdraw and take with him all the citizens of his nation. Yesterday evening the arms of the French republic were removed from the door of his house.

GREFFERN on the RHINE, October 20.

Fort Louis is summoned, but the governor declares he will defend it to the last extremity.—Preparations are therefore making for its instant bombardment.

PARIS, October 25.

General Carteaux is hourly expected at Nice. He quits his army with regret, and is replaced by general Lapopye. Admiral Goodall is said to have sent word to the latter, that he would release his wife and children, if he would give up the command of the army before Toulon; general Lapopye, who retook Fort Pharon, answered, that he would sacrifice his estate, his life and his love, to his country.

The grand total of prisoners in the different gaols of Paris, amounted yesterday to 3042, 162 of whom are in the palace called le Luxembourg.

Nov. 6. On the 21st October, Brissot and twenty other members suffered under the axe of the guillotine. The following is the official report published by order of the revolutionary tribunal on this head:

The tribunal, on the declaration of the jury (stating that Brissot, Vergniaud, Ducos, Boyer, Fonfrede, Boileau, Gardien, Duchastel, Sillery, Fauchet, Duperret, La Source, Carra, Reuvan, Mainville, Antiboul, Vigee, and Lacaze, are the authors or accomplices in a conspiracy which has existed against the unity and indivisibility of the republic; against the liberty and safety of the French people), condemns the abovementioned persons to death; declares their effects confiscated for the good of the republic; and orders that the sentence be executed in the Place de la Revolution, and that it be printed and distributed throughout the republic.

Valaze, one of the condemned, stabbed himself after he had heard his sentence. The tribunal has ordered that the carcase of the suicide be brought to the Place de la Revolution, that it may be buried with the other condemned deputies in the same place.

On the day after their condemnation, they were conveyed to the bloody scaffold: On their journey thither they entered into a very serious and eloquent debate, respecting the immortality of the soul; and on this subject they are said to have ultimately agreed that the intellectual spark survives the dissolution of the body.

The execution took place between eleven and twelve o'clock, and though performed as speedily as possible, took up the space of thirty-six minutes.

They all preserved a solid firmness, and individually, at the moment of being stretched upon the machine, exclaimed, Vive la republic! Vive la nation!

Brissot himself, except on this occasion, was thoughtful and silent.

Sillery smiled and bowed on every side to the spectators.

Fauchet, the constitutional bishop, was attended by a confessor, with whom he was much engaged in a very serious discourse.

Carra appeared indifferent, said little, and looked contemptuously.

LONDON, November 6.

The following dispatch was received this morning from Sir James Murray, &c. &c. by the right honourable Henry Dundas, his majesty's principal secretary of state for the home department:

Champhin, October 30, 1793.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you of the success of an attack upon Marchiennes, which, by order of his royal highness, took place last night.

Eight battalions were put under the command of major-general Kray, for this enterprise. They marched at midnight from Orchies, in three columns, each column headed by two officers and 60 volunteers, supported by 300 men. These were not permitted to load. The rest of the troops of the different columns, with their cannon, followed at some distance. A detachment from the corps of major-general Otto, posted by Denain, marched about the same time, formed in 4 columns, in similar order, that the town might be attacked at once upon all sides. The latter troops were discovered by the enemy's out-posts, and prevented from penetrating by the opposition which they met with. Those under general Kray, one column of which advanced upon the high road from Orchies, and the two others upon the left of it, got, about two o'clock in the morning, within a short distance of the town before they were perceived.

The volunteers at the head of the column, which was on the road, fell in with the picquet, about two hundred yards from the gate, which they surprised, killed the greater part of it, and pursued the rest so closely that they entered the place along with them. The troops in the town made little resistance. After being driven from the market-place where they had at first assembled, they retreated to a convent near it. They there proposed terms of capitulation, which general Kray consented to, as they surrendered prisoners of war, with the sole condition of the officers being permitted to wear their swords.

There are 1629 prisoners, officers included, most of them troops of the line. There are likewise twelve pieces of cannon, and 22 or 23 tumbrils taken. There are supposed to have been about 300 of the enemy killed. The loss of major-general Kray's corps is between 70 and 80 killed and wounded.—The loss upon major-general Otto's side is unknown, but is not imagined to be considerable.

I have the honour to be, with the greatest respect, Sir, your most obedient humble servant,

JAMES MURRAY,

Right hon. Henry Dundas, &c.

BOSTON, January 4.

A gentleman in this town has received letters from Madeira, dated the 28th October last, which make no mention whatever of any Algerine corsairs, or of any doubts respecting the safe conveyance of any produce wrote for. The letters are in the hands of the Editor.

THE BRITISH PACKETS.

So say accounts from Halifax, are ordered by the British lords of the admiralty, not to proceed any further than Halifax, on account of the dangers a late packet was exposed to from the French squadron at New-York. This circumstance may account for the late repeated disappointments respecting the arrival of the October packet. [Centinel.]

NEW FRENCH COIN.

The French national convention have issued a new silver coin, since the decapitation of Louis XVI. One of which, of six livres value, a correspondent has sent to the Editor. It bears on one side, the genius of liberty, in an angelic form, inscribing on a tablet, "The constitution." Behind her are fasces, surmounted by the cap of liberty, and in her front a "cock" the emblem of vigilance—The words enclosing the device, are "1793, Regne de la loi." On the reverse is a wreath of oak leaves, encircling the words, "six livres"—with a motto, "L'An II. de la Republique Francoise."

NEW-YORK, January 16.

Express dispatched from citizen Genet, at Philadelphia, to citizen Hauterive.

The duke of York is taken with his whole army. Toulon is re-taken with every ship which was in the harbour. All this, my dear fellow-citizen, has been announced to the congress, not officially, but as certain. The congress could not stay in their sitting. The whole people in Philadelphia are in the greatest joy; and compliments and salutations are coming to me from every part. It appears to be certain, that this news was brought in by the vessel sent to France by the president. Let all our friends know the news—and let us cry out together, Vive la Republique.

(Signed) GENET.

Extract of a letter received last Saturday by a gentleman in this city, dated Dublin October 20, 1793.

"An express to the lord lieutenant brings intelligence, that the prince de Cobourg had surrounded and beaten the French army, by which the latter lost 40,000 men. The Austrians having passed the river Sambre, forced all their works. The glory of the day, was, in some degree owing to a successful feint of the prince de Cobourg's falling back, by which he ensnared and turned the left flank of the French line."

Extract of a letter from on board his majesty's ship Courageux, dated off Sardinia.

"Monsieur St. Julien, late commander of the French fleet at Toulon, after proceeding for Marseilles, returned in disguise, without entering that city, and fearing equally from the Toulonese and the national convention, he came to the determination of trusting to the clemency of lord Hood, and actually got on board the Victory, and surrendered himself to the British admiral, who with that clemency that ever accompanies a British officer, put him on board a frigate destined for Barcelona, in order completely to put him out of the reach of any resentment his countrymen might entertain against him."

TRENTON, January 22.

Dispatches of an alarming nature were brought to the commander in chief, on Monday evening last, from the county of Burlington, giving information of the assembling of a number of the citizens of that county, in a riotous manner. The particulars or cause of which we had not learnt when this paper went to press. The commander in chief, at ten o'clock the same evening, issued orders by express, for a detachment of the militia to proceed to Burlington, for the purpose of dispersing the mob. The commander in chief, accompanied by several officers at 12 o'clock the same evening, left this for Burlington; and yesterday morning captain Carle, of the cavalry, with the major part of his troop.

PHILADELPHIA, January 21.

Extract of a letter from Fayetteville, dated the 6th instant, in the evening.

"Two gentlemen just arrived here, from Charleston, (S. C.) report, that a French 20 gun ship and an English 18 gun frigate, had a severe action near the harbour; that the English ship was taken, and brought into Charleston, in consequence of which a riot took place between the French and English, on their arrival, and that the city constable was killed in suppressing the fracas."

RICHMOND, January 21.

On Thursday morning last arrived at Norfolk, a sloop of war belonging to the French republic, from Brest, in 53 days, charged with dispatches for the minister of that nation.

She brings very agreeable intelligence—the particulars of which we cannot on this day give to the public. —The general information is, that the nation is now united—that Lyons had capitulated—that Toulon was invested by 200,000 men, and though it had not surrendered it was daily expected—and the commander says, that he spoke an American vessel, which left France after him, the captain of which informed him, that Toulon had actually surrendered.

A treaty is on foot between France and the king of Prussia—general Pichegru has been defeated before Dunkirk, with very great loss—in several other actions with the combined armies, the forces of the republic have been successful—and that the queen and the duke of Orleans were guillotined.

DUMFRIES, January 23.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of respectability in the Western Territory, to his friend in this county, dated December 2, 1793.

"A revolution is on foot in Louisiana; the French inhabitants on the west side of the river Mississippi, inspired by the glorious cause of their brethren in Europe, are determined to shake off the despotic yoke of Spain: they have actually declared their intentions, and dismissed a number of Spanish officers, by whom the administration of government had been usurped. By the best accounts, the French and American settlements on the Mississippi, can bring into the field an army of 6000 men, all excellent marksmen. Situated as they are—fighting for their liberty, and in the most delightful country in the western world, they cannot but be successful, if determined and united.

"A contemplating mind will easily conceive the great advantages that would accrue to the world in general, and the United States in particular, should such an event actually take place—it would open the road for millions of the human race, to emigrate to this favoured spot, on which Nature has lavished its gifts; and which, from its first discovery until now, has been lost to mankind, owing to the selfish views of a nation, whose ignorance and superstition prevented its rise and progress. The road once opened, would be the means of civilizing not only the natives of the soil, but (I may be allowed the expression) the Spaniards themselves over the gulph of Mexico, whom priestcraft and ignorance have made useless to society.—Such a revolution would produce more; it would put Americans in the full possession of the navigation of the noble river within their territory, the right of which (contrary to Nature's law) has been arbitrarily withheld, and by them shamefully given up to a people whom they neither ought to love nor fear.

"May the spirit of liberty make its way good to the delightful plains of Louisiana, where Gallia's sons once sheltered themselves from persecution and oppression, united rally round the standard of liberty and "will to be free!"

BALTIMORE, January 24.

Extract of a letter from a respectable house at Gibraltar, to their correspondent in this town, dated November 26, 1793, received by the brig Rover, Captain Smith.

"A few days ago a Portuguese frigate arrived here from Algiers, with dispatches for the court of Portugal, and brings us certain accounts that all the Algerine cruisers were returned into port, with no less than 11 American prizes, viz. 4 ships, 5 brigs, and 2 schooners, also 3 large Genoese Pallarus, all loaded with valuable cargoes of wheat, flour, tobacco, sugar, coffee, &c. We have not been able to procure the names of all the American vessels—we only know two, the ship called the President, of Philadelphia, and the Thomas, of Boston. However, there are letters from all the captains, on board the frigate, in a packet directed for Messrs. Bulkely and Co. of Lisbon, which we could not take upon ourselves to open. We are informed that there were three English gentlemen passengers on board some of the American vessels, taken and carried into Algiers, and having no passports from the British consul, they are considered slaves, and must remain so until they are redeemed: One of them is Mr. M'Namara.

"All the captains of the Algerine cruisers have been dismissed and punished for returning into port contrary to their orders, having been fitted out for six months, and others are appointed in their room, so that their next cruise will not be a short one. We have certain accounts of all the cruisers having been ready for sea the 10th instant, and resolved to push to the westward again with all possible speed; however, your vessels will have some days the start of them, and we hope will arrive safe.

"We see no prospect of the present unfortunate war with France being near an end: Though attacked in every quarter, by almost all the powers in Europe, they are making surprising efforts of defence. Toulon continues in the possession of the English and Spanish squadrons, with a strong garrison of troops; notwithstanding, we should not be surprised if it was retaken this winter, as the French are bringing down a strong army to attack it.

"The king of Naples, grand duke of Tuscany, and Genoa, have all declared war against the French, so that they seem to have no friends left in Europe. We hope and trust that America will not be involved in the war: If a strict neutrality is observed on their part, we have no doubt but it will be permitted."

Jan. 25. By a gentleman who left Gibraltar on the first of December last, we are informed, that early in November a British fleet with a few troops were sent as a reinforcement to Toulon—and before he sailed, intelligence was received, that the national troops had got possession of the fortifications, and commenced a cannonade against the ships in the harbour. The St. George, in returning the fire, burst two of her guns, killed a great number of men, and tore up a considerable part of her decks.

Letters just received from St. Mark's, mention the arrival of 1200 French troops at Port-de-Paix, in Hispaniola—that Port-au-Prince was taken by the white inhabitants—that the commissioner Santhonax had fled to the mountains, with the negroes, and that Polverel is imprisoned at Les Cayes.

ANNAPOLIS, January 30.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Philadelphia to his friend in Baltimore, dated the 20th inftant.

"Among the official papers received from the national convention, is contained a decree for the recal of citizen Genet; which was announced to him this day by a deputation of two members of congress.

"We are informed, that a British fleet with 12,000 troops on board have arrived at Barbadoes."

PROPOSALS

For PUBLISHING a PERIODICAL WORK, to be entitled,

The MONTHLY MIRROR; or, MARYLAND MUSEUM.

I. IT shall contain a pleasing variety of interesting and entertaining subjects, calculated to improve as well as amuse the mind. The most approved selections from different authors, both ancient and modern, either of Europe or America, will form a part of this work; likewise, the newest improvements and discoveries that have or may be made, within the present century, in each art and science.

II. Extracts from various writers on Religion, Philosophy, Laws, Physic, and Divinity, shall also compose a part of this work.—A space will be assigned for the debates of congress—the debates of the British house of commons—a complete register of foreign and domestic news—essays—poetry—marriages—deaths, &c. &c.

III. Farmers, millers, and mechanics, shall be gratified with a particular description of such methods and machinery as are now in use among the most experienced in the above branches of business, in this country and in Europe.

IV. It shall comprise forty-eight octavo pages, neatly printed, and stitched in blue paper.—Price to subscribers Twenty Shillings per annum; others who purchase will have to pay Twenty-two Shillings and Six-pence, or a Quarter of a Dollar each number.

V. As soon as 400 subscribers are procured, this work shall be put to press, and a number delivered regularly in the first week of every month.* Eight pages will be assigned for ADVERTISEMENTS, which may be of peculiar advantage to the manufacturing and trading part of the community in every state in the union; as it is expected to meet with a general circulation throughout the continent, and serve as a vehicle of useful information and instruction to every citizen in the United States.

IT is needless to say much in favour of a publication of this nature.—The utility and convenience of a work of this kind must appear obvious to every person the least acquainted with polite literature, and a general knowledge of the world.—It will contribute towards the stock of necessary information, respecting mercantile affairs, manufactures, agriculture, and commerce; and is meant to convey pleasure as well as profit to those who shall patronise this work.—Readers, of every denomination, shall occasionally be furnished with sketches of real life, and the utmost exertions shall be made to render it as useful a publication as any ever attempted in this country.

Subscriptions are taken in by the publisher PHILIP EDWARDS, JAMES RICE, and AMBROSE CLARK, in Baltimore.

☞ The printers throughout the United States are earnestly requested to give these proposals a place in their news-papers, which will very much oblige their most obedient humble servant,

PHILIP EDWARDS.

Baltimore, June 28, 1793.

N. B. Those subscribers who live at a distance from Baltimore, shall have their books forwarded by the earliest and cheapest conveyance, but at their own risque and expence.

* Half the subscription money to be paid on the delivery of the first number.

ALL persons having balances due them on tobacco, shipped to the address of Messieurs WILLIAM ANDERSON and Co. of LONDON, per my procuration, are desired to take notice, that it is necessary their bills on said company should be endorsed by me, or they will not be paid.

All those indebted to said company, for transactions through my agency, are earnestly requested to make immediate payment; and, in order to accommodate such as may find it more convenient to discharge their balances at Elk-Ridge-Landing, during the present inspection of tobacco, they will please to take notice, that I have furnished Mr. EDWARD GWINN with a list of balances, and copies of each person's account, who is authorised to settle with such as may apply.

The subscriber is instructed to require a strict observance to this notice, and he flatters himself it will be duly attended to and complied with, without further trouble or delay; but if, contrary to his wish and expectation, it should be neglected, he will be under the disagreeable necessity of commencing suits against all delinquents, without the least discrimination, after the first day of September next.
